

Michael O. McAuliffe

Consultant ~ Educator

Michael O McAuliffe currently serves as President of POLICING EXCELLENCE, LLC, where his team provides domestic and global consulting and education services for excellence and continuous improvement in the delivery of police services, ethics, and leadership development, managing organizational change, and the challenges of community engagement. His expertise further includes emotional Intelligence, resiliency and leading organizational change.

Mike retired after 37 years in the field of law enforcement as a Supervisory Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). He spent his last 10 years in the FBI as an instructor of leadership at the prestigious FBI National Academy, Quantico, Virginia, where he was also an adjunct faculty member for the University of Virginia. He further served as a Program Manager for the FBI Academy Leadership Development Programs for law enforcement executives from around the world, to include the Law Enforcement Executive Development Seminar (LEEDS), and National Executive Institute (NEI).

Prior to his work at the FBI Academy in the aftermath of September 11, 2001, Mike served as the Coordinator for the South Florida Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF) in the Counterterrorism Program at the FBI Miami field office. As JTTF Coordinator, he was responsible for training programs, information sharing, and liaison for more than 160 federal agents, state and local law enforcement personnel. While in the Miami FBI office, he further investigated domestic and international multi-million-dollar white collar crime-fraud matters, public corruption, organized crime, and racketeering.

Prior to joining the FBI, he served for 16 years as a police officer, including six years as a Chief of Police for the West Boylston Police Department in Massachusetts. He has been involved in law enforcement training and education throughout his career on the college level and in police academies. McAuliffe is a graduate of the 178th Session of the FBI National Academy. He has earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from Northeastern University and a Master of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice from Anna Maria College.